

DV-alert
Domestic and Family Violence Response Training

First Nations Workshop

For frontline workers

About 2-Day Foundations workshop

This workshop provides practical knowledge and skills in implementing the Recognise, Respond and Refer Model © in a frontline worker context.

When delivered in rural and remote areas, this course is offered as an accredited workshop including assessment. When delivered in metropolitan areas, this course is as a standalone non-accredited workshop or as part of the DV-alert Assessment Pathway towards achieving accreditation.

RECOGNISE the signs of domestic and family violence

RESPOND confidently

REFER appropriately

Enhance your skills with 1-Day focused workshops

There are a range of 1-day workshops available that you can attend, including:

- Engaging with Interpreters
- First Nations
- Gendered Violence in Diverse Communities
- Multicultural
- Men who Use Violence
- Women with Disability.

Nationally recognised training

Once each of the components of the DV-alert Assessment Pathway have been completed, you can enrol in the Assessment session. After successful completion of the assessments, you will achieve a nationally recognised Statement of Attainment for the unit of competency CHCDFV001 Recognise and respond appropriately to domestic and family violence.
