Domestic and Family Violence Response Training

1-Day focused workshop:

First Nations

For frontline workers

“

I learnt about the greater context in which domestic and family violence takes place and the interconnected issues.

— Wez, Youth Liaison Officer

About 1-day focused workshops

Attend our 1-day workshops to grow your knowledge of the complexities and nuances of domestic and family violence within different contexts.

Learners attending these workshops need to have previously attended any 2-day DV-alert workshops.

About First Nations Workshop

- Identify and respond to the needs of First Nations clients who may be experiencing family violence
- Respond appropriately to immediate interventions and support needs of First Nations including safety planning
- Refer First Nations clients to appropriate services and support.

Enhance your skills with other 1-day focused workshops

There are a range of other 1-day workshops available that you can attend to enhance your knowledge and skills, including:

- Engaging with Interpreters
- Gendered Violence in Diverse Communities
- Multicultural
- Men who Use Violence
- Women with Disability.

Nationally recognised training

Once each of the components of the DV-alert Assessment Pathway have been completed, you can enrol in the Assessment session. After successful completion of the assessments, you will achieve a nationally recognised Statement of Attainment for the unit of competency CHCDFS001 Recognise and respond appropriately to domestic and family violence.
